RET Curriculum Development: Opportunities for Growth
Effective Links Between Design and Science Content

In your group, reflect on the experiences of your own unit or one you have engaged in. Contrast a case where the unit effectively linked design with science content with a case which was less effective. Give concrete examples and be prepared to share with the group.

What strategies will you try in your new unit?